Leading in a Changing World...

Educators in California face the daily challenges and reward: working in a system that requires increasingly sophisticated leadership skills. Our conference, Leading in a Changing World, will celebrate the daily heroism of educational leaders and offer some solutions to the many challenges we encounter each day. Brett McFadden, will kick off the first general session with an inspiring presentation on “Building Morale in Demoralizing Times. Brett is a Sacramento insider and veteran presenter. He brings a sense of humor mixed with realism.

John Halverson, our second general session speaker will provide us with strategies that empower us to lead tough times. John has been an outstanding leader in the Sylvan Union School District. He brings a leadership tool kit that will provide leadership strategies for leaders at all levels. Brigid McGrath-Massie, a Region favorite, will present on Intergenerational Success. Brigid is an entertaining and inspirational speaker who strikes a positive chord with any audience. Our final general session will feature a survivor of the Foster C system, Estakio Beltran, speaking about his life, from at-risk childhood to working for Representative Den Cardoza. His is a story of perseverance, hard work, and support from caring adults leading to great success.
