

association of california
school administrators

Region VII Elementary Principals Symposium

Thursday, November 13, 2008

6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

Board Room
Stanislaus County Office of Education

What's In It for YOU?

- Favorite Practices of California Principals
- Ideas on how to boost the morale of your staff and students without spending money!
- Information on leadership coaching
- Opportunities to network with elementary administrators from more than five counties!
- Be the first one in your district to have the latest publication from the Elementary Education Council, "Favorite Practices of California Principals" only $15! A perfect addition to any professional library.

Who Should Attend?

ALL elementary school administrators (Principals, Assistant Principals, District Office Administrators)

You will leave with new ideas, new contacts, and possibly a new copy of the highly acclaimed new publication, "Favorite Practices of California Principals" only $15!

Guest Speakers Include:

Dan Owens
National Distinguished Principal, CA-2005
Past President, ACSA Elementary
Education Council
Editor, Favorite Practices of California
Principals
California Representative to NAESP
(National Association of Elementary School Principals)
Principal, Elk Grove Unified SD

Michael Bossi
National Distinguished Principal, CA-1996
ACSA Elementary Executive/Director of Leadership Coaching

Please RSVP by November 7:
sborba@stanunion.k12.ca.us